New Hampshire World Fellowship Center

Make this summer one to remember!

Welcome to Summer 2018!

Feast in community on a banquet of presentations and workshops. Bask in music, arts, Fun Night! Explore wilderness trails, body movement, and more...or less!

Day visitors welcome. Day rates available.

Everyday Offerings - Well, most days!
Hike & Bike Outings with Recreation Coordinator.
Body Movement Yoga, gentle stretching, etc
Art on the Porch fun with an artist and colors.

Summer Season Opens with 6pm Dinner

Thursday, June 21, 7:30pm Welcome/Intro
Friday, June 22, 7pm Fun Night!
8pm Who But Andy Davis?! Storytelling.
Saturday, June 23, 7:30pm
Peregrine Players Concert: Transformation!
EMW faculty. Pamela Dellal-voice; Jane Hershey, Anne Legêne, Josh Schreiber Shalem-viols, Roy Sansom, Héloïse Degrugillier-recorders; Larry Wallach-harpsicord.
Sunday, June 24, 10am
The Solstice & Our Inner Grounding: Deepening Wellsprings for the Journey of Our Lives
Jean Walsh is an activist and ordained UCC pastor who works as a multi-faith NYC hospital chaplain.
7:30pm Transformation-Program Notes Live!
EMW faculty discuss select concert works, sharing insights into contexts and musical processes.
Monday, June 25, 7:30pm
Indigenous Resistance in Guatemala
Mayan people resist dams that would flood homes, ban use of agricultural chemicals and sale of junk food, reforest their community and lead in indigenous education. Copal AA La Esperanza activist and interpreter Heather Dean, former human rights accompanier in Guatemala and Mexico.
Tuesday, June 26, 7:30pm
Emancipating the Bass!
A talk and audio presentation on the golden century when continuo and accompaniment flourished. Christopher Greenleaf, EMW co-founder (1995).
Wednesday, June 27, 7:30pm
English Country Dance for all! All dances taught.

Transformation!

Thursday - Thursday, June 21 - 28*
Early Music Week Retreat!
Music is an art of change - sounds evolve through time; themes are mutated, elaborated. Songs to dances, chants to secular pieces; a melody borrowed from one tradition is transformed into something else by another. The beauty of the art works a change in our souls. Faculty listed 6/23, plus guest dancer/choreographer Ken Pierce. Group classes, from advanced beginner to advanced for viol, recorder, voice, mixed ensembles and historical dance. *$300

Thursday, June 28, 7:30 pm
Climate Change Journey: Awakening -> Depression -> Hope -> Empowerment
Basic science, impacts, hopeful options, and ways to take action. Citizens' Climate Lobby activist Emily Northrop, prof of Econ at Southwestern U, TX.
Friday, June 29, 7:30pm Fun Night!

Feldenkrais© Intensive

Friday-Sunday, June 29 - July 1*
More Than Meets the Eye
Deep habits of focus, effort, tension, and intention are all evident in the organization of our eyes, whether in vision or in coordination with movement. Josh Schreiber Shalem facilitates getting curious about yourself and the way you move through the world, as you learn to see both the world and yourself in a new light! Experience not required.*Fee.

Dying Well 1-Day Retreat

Saturday, June 30, 9:30am - 4:30pm
When we hold space for authentic discussions on how to die well, humanity lives well. A safe space for personal exploration to: identify what dying well means to you; create a custom modifiable death plan; be better prepared for potentially difficult conversations; replace feelings of powerlessness with empowerment; and understand that dying well for me isn't necessarily dying well for you.
Erin Wright and Howard Stanten facilitate.

Performance and Activism

Saturday, June 30, 10am
The Foundations of a Good Story
Essentials for an autobiographical solo show - in 2 hrs. For new writers. Christine Renee Miller, NY-based actress/director/writer.
7:30pm
Such Nice Shoes! Christine Renee Miller
What happens when you mix yoga clients, the MTA, the city's homeless, crappy auditions, and breast cancer? A typical NYC day.
Sunday, July 1, 10am
The Inner Workings of a Character
For performers who want to dabble in writing and writers who want to dabble in performing: Get out of your head and into your body as you learn to write with Christine Renee Miller.
1:30pm Stories to Change The World
Craft a captivating narrative that makes other people want to fight for climate justice - in 4 hours. Griffin Sinclair-Wingate and Elizabeth Lamy-Harris of 350NH.

Alternative 4th of July!

Sun, July 1, 7:30pm Intros/Overview
Monday, July 2, 7:30pm
Constitution: Living, Breathing or Dead?
Chaumtoli Huq, founder/editor of Law@theMargins, a non-profit focused on law and social justice, teaches at CUNY law school.
Tuesday, July 3, 7:30pm
Growing Up Black and Muslim in the US: A Narrative
Khalafalla M.Osman is a storyteller, formerly with Children at the Well Youth Storytellers for Peace and Understanding of Albany, NY.
Wednesday, July 4, 7:30pm
How I Express My Love of Country
A discussion with Khalafalla M.Osman.

The Long and Wonderful Haul

Thursday, July 5, 7:30pm
Ecological Justice: Why Surviving Climate Change Requires Intersectional Justice
Rev Mariama White-Hammond serves as Minister for Ecological Justice at Bethel AME Church in Boston and as a fellow with the Green Justice Coalition, a partnership of environmental justice groups.
Friday, July 6, 10am
The Bicycle as a Vehicle for Social Change
Elijah Evans is ED of Bikes Not Bombs, which promotes skill development, jobs & sustainable transportation, and mobilizes leadership for community transformation.
7:30pm Fun Night!
Saturday, July 7, 10am
50 Years of Activism Together
Join Ellen and Robert Meeropol to discuss working for change and living a life connected to family, friends, and community.
7:30 Contradance - White Mountain Céili Band! All dances taught.
Sunday, July 8, 10am
Taking on the Fossil Fuel Industry
Pushing back against legal attacks by Trump's law firm and pipeline developers on the environmental movement. Rachel Meeropol, Center for Constitutional Rights.

Anti-Oppression at Home

Activists from Lawrence, MA (former mill town now over 70% people who immigrated), use anti-oppression theory and practice in justice-based approach to revitalization.
Sunday, July 8, 7:30pm
"Bread and Roses" Approach to Education
Learn about efforts of teachers, parents and activists to transition Lawrence City schools from state receivership to local control.
Monday, July 9, 7:30pm
From Mill Town to Multinational City
Lawrence has a proud tradition of welcoming immigrants. With rights threatened nationwide, learn what leaders are doing to resist and ensure that our communities continue to welcome people from all backgrounds.

Dance In The Round!

Sunday - Sunday, July 8 - 15
Choreographer/dancer Parijat Desai teaches circle dances that originate in Gujarat, India and are played across global South Asian diaspora. People of all levels/abilities can enjoy the deeply human experience of dancing in a circle, connecting to one another and individual freedom inside an organic group.

Photography Workshop

Monday - Saturday, July 9 - 14
Art and science of light - daily sessions for all levels w/nature photographer Gina Bilander.
Tuesday, July 10, 7:30pm Wales
Journey through the history and legends, landscape, poetry, miners and bards, with photographer Gina Bilander.

Trans Rights Now!

Wednesday, July 11, 7:30pm
Transgender Non-discrimination Protections and Next Steps for NH
Linds Jakows is the non-binary campaign manager of Freedom New Hampshire.
Thursday, July 12, 7:30pm
Be Nice to Trans People: 2018 Basics
Isabelle is a nerdy autodidact with a head for random facts. Roo Khan is a mixed-race trans Muslim who does movement tech support.
Friday, July 13, 10am
The Practice of Transformative Justice: Tear Down The Prison In Your Head
Practitioner and educator of alternative justice systems, Andy Izenson is a queer, trans, Jewish attorney-mediator.
7:30pm Fun Night!
Saturday, July 14, 10am
Music for the Movement: An Audio-Visual History of Social Movements
Cal Trumann is an activist, instigator, and performer who shares Emma Goldman's opinion on dancing.
2-3pm Aging In Community
Marsha Lazar and Dianne Perlmutter, Boston Workmen's Circle "Aging in Community" co-chairs, facilitate a conversation about the opportunities and challenges of aging & WFC.
7:30pm Contradance!
Shana Aisenberg and Friends
Sunday, July 15, 10am
Intersectionality: Beyond the Buzzword
Aida Manduley is an award-winning Latinx activist, therapist, and sexuality educator.

Ukulele Workshop/Festival

Sunday - Sunday, July 15 - 22*
Arrive for 6pm dinner Sunday. M-F enjoy:
For Starters 9am Get help borrowing ukes, tuning, holding, strumming, or making simple chord shapes and you'll be ready for:
Sing & Strum Circle 9:45-10:45am with Tips and embellishments. For all levels.
Expanding Playing Horizons 11-noon Learn intermediate moves and styles.
Music Jam for all 4:30-5:30pm Dan Lynn Watt, Molly Lynn Watt, and Shana Aisenberg, with many special guests. *$150

Health, Love, Bats

Sunday, July 15, 7:30pm
Homeopathy, a Permacultural Paradigm
Jerry M. Kantor, principal owner of Vital Force Health Care, a homeopathy and acupuncture practice in Needham, MA, is ED of the National Institute of Whole Health.
Monday, July 16, 10am
More on Homeopathy and Permaculture
Continue discussion with Jerry Kantor.
7:30pm
The Inheritance of What We Hold
Julie Lanoie explores the legacies we carry, and lessons on letting go learned through stories of how the Holocaust affected her Dutch grandparents. Julie is an RN, counselor and hospice bereavement coordinator.
Tuesday, July 17, 7:30pm
NH Bats and White Nose Syndrome
Wendy Scribner is a forestry field specialist with the UNH Cooperative Extension.

History & the Blues

Wednesday, July 18, 7:30pm
Songs of the Communist Movement: A Childhood Perspective
Dan Lynn Watt reads excerpts from his 2017 memoir, History Lessons, and leads singalong.
Thursday, July 19, 7:30pm
Haiti's Proud History: Then & Now
Joia Mukherjee, Chief Medical Officer for Partners in Health, has worked intensively in Haiti, including following 2010 earthquake.
Friday, July 20, 7:30pm - Fun Night!
Saturday, July 21, 10am
Ukulele Roots in the Blues and Jazz
TJ Wheeler, professional Blues, Jazz and roots musician for 40 years, traces the uke's place in the history of USA's great cultural gifts.
7:30pm TJ Wheeler!
Blues, Jazz, Ragtime and more performed on a variety of instruments, including 7 string guitar, ukulele, and tenor banjo.

Singing with Courage!

Sunday - Wednesday, July 22 - 25*
Find and lift your voice in a supportive environment with Jon Arterton. Beginners and experienced alike improvise; experiment; laugh! Told not to sing as a child? This is especially for you. *$150

Ultimate Frisbee Week!

Sunday - Sunday, July 22 - 29
WFC's First Ultimate Frisbee week led by coach/player Dave Campolo. Learn to catch, pivot, throw, and score, playing this ultimate non-contact team sport. Born in the 1960s, it is self-refereed and played according to the "spirit of the game." All ages, all levels!

Privilege and Liberation

Sunday, July 22, 10am
Sexual Harassment in the Workplace
Youth organizers from Teens Lead @ Work with Jenny Fernandez, MA Coalition for Occupational Safety and Health (MassCOSH).
7:30pm
Social Location Space
Youth leaders from Pittsfield Listens, based in rural NH, facilitate to explore structural oppression and intersectional vulnerability.

Rebels and Guns

Monday, July 23, 7:30pm
Chosen Country: A Rebellion in the West
An inside look at America's militia movement shows a country at the crossroads of class, culture, and insurrection. Author James Pogue has written for Mother Jones, the New Yorker, and the London Review of Books and his work has been in City by City, from N+1 and FSG.
Tuesday, July 24, 10am
My Little AR-15
A probing conversation about gun culture and political violence, facilitated by James Pogue.

Capoeira Angola

Tuesday - Sunday, July 24 - 29
Youth Empowerment, Body Movement
Kilombo Novo members train and share Afro-Brazilian spiritual martial art with redemptive and revolutionary qualities.

Wakanda Rising!

Tuesday, July 24, 7:30pm
Hollywood's Portrayal of Africa and Identity Formation Among AfroDiasporic Young People
Boston area Kilombo Novo community members with Courtney Mark "Zumbi" Grey.
Wednesday, July 25, 7:30pm
The Second Assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr.
Arnold Farr, U of KY philosophy professor, founder of the Int'l Herbert Marcuse Society.
Thursday, July 26, 7:30pm
Defending the Arts in Education
How are educators creatively maladjusting in this age of uncertainty, privatization, and divestment? Winston Cox, a career educator, is the director of implementation for Turnaround Arts at the JFK Center for Performing Arts.
Friday, July 27, 7:30pm Fun Night!

Saturday, July 28, 10am
Unleashing Our Collective Power
Ernesto "Eroc" Arroyo-Montano, United for a Fair Economy cultural organizer, Hip Hop artist and community activist guides discussion on achieving social justice through popular education and cultural organizing.

One Drop of Love!

Saturday, July 28, 7:30pm
Fanshen Cox DiGiovanni performs her solo show exploring the intersections of race, class and gender in pursuit of truth, justice and love. The show is produced by Cox DiGiovanni, Ben Affleck, and Matt Damon.
Sunday, July 29, 10am
Intersecting Identities: Historical Context, Personal Narrative and Identity
A foray into storytelling in pursuit of social justice, exploring racial/class/gender identity, invisible identity, intersectionality, privilege, and whiteness. With Fanshen Cox DiGiovanni.

Soccer Week!

Monday - Friday, July 30-August 3
Afternoon drills, encouragement and games with Coach Stu Ball. All ages, all levels!

Feminism in the Muslim World

Sunday, July 29, 7:30pm
Breaking Silence* (2017, 40 min)
Ground-breaking documentary weaves together three Muslim women's stories as they open up about experiences of sexual assault, insights about change required to help survivors, hold perpetrators accountable, and prevent reoccurrences. Navila Rashid, Manager of Community Education and Outreach for Womankind, who is a survivor profiled, introduces the film.
Monday, July 30, 10am
Breaking Silence* - Discussion
Navila Rashid and Jason Jeremias discuss sexual violence in Muslim and other communities in this political moment. Jason is director of the global grassroots women's rights performing arts/resistance network, Price of Silence.
2pm
Activism in Action vs Activism (in) Action
In this workshop Jason Jeremias infuses experiences as a director, writer, journalist on the front lines of the largest conflict of history, gender based violence, into creating a theatre that undermines the history of man to put intersectional and post colonial women's rights center stage.

Nonviolence & Capitalism

Monday & Tuesday, July 30 - 31, 7:30pm
The Poor People's Campaign Then and Now
Joanne Sheehan of the War Resisters' League and Arnie Alpert of AFSC-NH.
Wednesday, August 1, 7:30pm
"Homeless, Homeless Are We"
Join Jim Greene, City of Boston Emergency Shelter Commission director, for a Hootenanny!
Thursday, August 2, 7:30pm
Is 'Innovation' Merely Double-speak for More Capitalism at Any Cost?"
Tom Roach, is professor of Literary and Cultural Studies at Bryant University.
Friday, August 3, 7:30pm Fun Night!
Saturday, August 4, 10am
Restorative Circles-Community Circles
In schools, students and educators build community using Cirlces as a restorative justice process. NYC teacher Josh Heisler introduces basic Circle protocol and philosophy.
7:30pm Sol y Canto!
Latin roots music to change the world; Passionate, poetic, playful and honest.
Sunday, August 5, 10am
Deep Song
Brian & Rosi Amador of Sol y Canto explore the currents that brought them to music and nourish them three decades into their musical journey.

Dance for Every Body!

Sunday - Sunday, August 5 - 12
Dance is play in motion. Whatever shape you're in, movement is your birthright. Experience the power of dance to unite your body, your mind and your spirit. Wear loose, comfortable clothing. With Joan Green.

Struggle, Risk, Longevity

Sunday, August 5, 7:30pm
Dem Arbeters Kamf* (The Workers' Struggle): Radical Yiddish Liberation Songs
Ty Citerman - guitarist, composer, educator.
Monday, August 6, 7:30pm
Where You'll Find Me: Risk, Decisions, and the Last Climb of Kate Matrosova
Ty Gagne examines the balance of risk and adventure in extreme conditions via the subject of his book about a White Mountains tragedy.
Tuesday, August 7, 7:30pm
After 100 years of WF- Was bleibt?!
What remains? Christoph Schmauch, WFC ED Emeritus has lived 83 of the 100 years, including over 30 at WFC.
Wednesday, August 8, 7:30pm
Single Payer National Health Insurance: How do We Get There from Here?
Dr. Martha Livingston, SUNY/Old Westbury public health dept chair, Metro Physicians for Nat'l Health Program vice chair and co-editor of 10 Excellent Reasons for Nat'l Health Care.
Thursday, August 9, 7:30pm
A Progressive Strategy to Reduce Today's Nuclear Threats
Alicia Sanders-Zakre is a researcher with the Arms Control Association.

Gleefully Subversive & Free

Friday, August 10, 7:30pm - Fun Night!
Saturday, August 11, 10am
Gleefully Subversive Italian Tales
John Sanders tells delightful stories of Gianni Rodari, the greatest Italian children's author of the 20th century. Rodari's work has been translated into 46 languages, but rarely into English, due to McCarthy Era prejudice.
7:30pm Jackson Gillman!
"The Stand-Up Chameleon" incorporates song, story, comedy, dance, mime and sign language into his own intimate style of theatre.
Sunday, August 12, 10am
Playwriting Workshop: Freedom in Limitation
Poet, playwright Jillian Buckley teaches writing, debate, and Girl Talk (intersectional feminism for 11 year-olds) in Brooklyn.
7:30pm
Staring into the Climate Abyss: The Necessity of Spirit Filled Civil Disobedience
Jay O'Hara, Climate Disobedience Center co-founder is recognized by his Quaker meeting to serve as a traveling minister in New England.
Monday, August 13, 7:30pm
Perception vs. Reality: the Power of Images
Robert Pluma is a Mexican-American multi-media documentary artist based in Brooklyn.
Tuesday, August 14, 7:30pm
The Worker Cooperative Movement: How can we build a new independent economy?
Tamara Shapiro, NYC Network of Worker Coops prog dir, helped initiate Occupy Sandy, with Rockaway Wildfire, and Mvmt Netlab.
Wednesday, August 15, 7:30pm
Finding Your Organizing Voice in Any Language
Farah Assiraj, Dir of Organizing for the Boston Teachers Union, is the founder of Peregrinum organization, focused on intersectional, cultural and racial identity in school communities and advocacy for equitable resources to serve the most marginalized students.

Youth and Art

Thurs - Tues, August 16-21
ORNG Ink artists lead artistic exploration.
Thursday, August 16, 7:30pm
What the ACLU-NH is Doing to Protect Granite Staters' Civil Rights in the Courts, State House & Our Communities
Jeanne Hruska, policy director for ACLU-NH.
Friday, August 17, 7:30pm - Fun Night!
Saturday, August 18, 10am
The Elements of Hip Hop
Ray Sykes is an MC and founder of the Don't Drop the Mic artist showcase. Cesar Presa is an instrumentalist/producer.
7:30pm UofO Music City Concert!
University of Orange's Music City project celebrates and supports musicians and music-making communities in Orange NJ.

Sunday, August 19, 10am
Sound and Listening workshop
Sounding, listening, improvising and composing exercises open to everyone of any (or no) musical experience. Doug Farrand, musician/composer/co-director of UofO Music City.

Hula Hoop Week!

Sunday - Sunday, August 19-26*
Sarah Daly of Hoop De Doo teaches basic hoop spinning around waist, intermediate tricks, leg, foot and shoulder hooping, dancing with your hoop, hoop-making, and more. Mind-expanding fun! *$75 includes making your personal hoop.
Sunday, August 19, 7:30pm
Making the Personal Political
Christian John Lillis, Peggy Lillis Foundation ED/co-founder, on national advocacy and patient safety work in response to his mother's death from a clostridium difficile infection.

Meditation through Movement!

Sunday - Sunday, August 19 - 26
Roller skates-on workshop for every level to develop and improve techniques - find your balance, be safer on streets, grapevine with friends. Leave with core skills for street, slalom, aggressive, rec and dance skating. Rhythm Roller Skating is main focus, and we embrace disciplines aligned with Meditation in Motion. Work on your own, in the semi privacy of others geeking out on wheels. Jennifer Smith Mohammed, certified skate teacher. Register with your shoe size and we'll have your skates!

Japanese Brush Painting

Monday - Friday, August 20 - 24*
Explore open space style of painting with brush, ink and water. Paul Siudzinski teaches beginners and those who have studied Sumi-e. Materials fee $20 includes roll of rice paper, use of sumi brushes and ink.

Remember and Change

Monday, August 20, 7:30pm
400 Years of Inequality and Resistance
2019 marks 400 years since Africans landed at Jamestown. Mindy Fullilove, New School Urban Policy prof, is author of Urban Alchemy: Restoring Joy to America's Sorted-out Cities.
Margaux Simmons, composer, flutist, teacher, activist, and co-director of UofO Music City.
Tuesday, August 21, 7:30pm
Place-Based Organizing
How do we understand our local histories, identify assets and build strong networks to fight for justice? Aubrey Murdock, designer/urban ecologist, and Molly Rose Kaufman, journalist/community organizer, both of U of Orange.
Wednesday, August 22, 7:30pm
The Occupation of the American Mind: Israel's Public Relations War in the U.S.
This widely praised film by the Media Education Foundation features narration by Roger Waters with commentary by Noam Chomsky, Phyllis Bennis, Rashid Khalidi and others.
Thursday, August 23, 7:30pm
Hidden History: Quakers and Puritans in 17th Century New England
Olga Morrill discusses Vagabond Quakers: Northern Colonies, her recently published historical fiction based on actual occurrences.
Friday, August 24, 7:30pm - Fun Night!
Saturday, August 25, 10am
Develop Your Personal Story Workshop
Mass Mouth Story Slam veterans Mary Wallace Collins and Chuck Collins guide an opportunity to work on a 5 minute personal tale to tell.
7:30pm Story Slam!
Mary Wallace and Chuck Collins host a good-natured contest for experienced and novice storytellers alike. Sign up to tell a 5 minute story on the theme of "Schooled."
Sunday, August 26, 10am
Art Making and Truth Telling
Artist Robert Shetterly is best known for the series of portraits Americans Who Tell the Truth, which travels around the US.
7:30pm Stone Soup Community: Coming Together to Make Eastie Farm Happen
Kannan Thiruvengadam is an East Boston-based farmer, sustainability teacher, climate activist, and community organizer.

Choral Singing with Bev Grant!

Sunday - Friday, Aug 26 - 31*
Singing songs together moves us toward a better world - and is fun! All levels, genders, ages, styles welcome! Bev Grant, feminist, activist, singer, songwriter, Brooklyn Women's Chorus director, grandmother! *$100 fee.

Solidarity and Liberation

Monday, August 27, 7:30pm
Theater & Performance for Social Change!
Jax Gil, Liberatory Theater Project founder; of Mijente Boston, and Boston Ujima Project's Arts & Culture working group.
Tuesday, August 28, 7:30pm
Solidarity with the LGBTQ Community
Joely Barrios, Boston-based spoken word poet and community organizer & Sol Gonzalez of the Matahari Women's Center in Boston.
Wednesday, August 29, 7:30pm
The Continued Colonization of Puerto Rico
Eroc Arroyo-Montano (see 7/28), and Jasmine Gomez, activist attorney, Black Law Students Association Emerging Leader Award recipient.
Thursday, August 30, 7:30pm
#MeToo #TimesUp and #WhatNow from a Black Feminist Lens
Ayanna M. Parris (MA, Africana Studies, Cornell) is a facilitator/educator with a focus on racial equity and inclusion.

Labor Day Weekend

Friday, August 31, 8pm Fun Night!
Saturday, September 1, 10am
Haiti and the US: A Historic Relationship
An exploration of the impact of the Haitian revolution on US abolitionism and the American Civil War etc. Charlot Lucien, Haitian-born, MA-based storyteller, visual artist, and author.

Peacemaking Circle Training

Sat, Sept 1, 9:30-4:30* 1-Day Retreat
Be part of a process to create a trusting space in service of hearing the authentic voice of everyone present. Learn to facilitate meaningful group conversations - useful in racial healing, diversity training, team alignment, restorative justice. Interactive and experiential. Erin Wright and Howard Stanten. *$99 (sliding scale)
Saturday, Sept 1, 7:30pm Charlot Lucien!
Storyteller, poet and visual artist who draws on the history and politics of Haiti.
Sunday, September 2, 10am
Making Mirrors: Righting/Writing by Refugees
Becky Thompson, recently returned from working with refugees in Greece, Professor of Sociology at Simmons College.
7:30pm Toasting the Last Marshmallow
Monday, Sept 3

78th Summer Season ends with lunch

YOUR FALL RETREAT

Create your own retreat. Personal or group, R&R or work get-away, or get married here!

Celebration of Life of Tim Hoerres
1:30pm, Sunday, August 5th

VOLUNTEER!

May-June or Sept-Oct Work Weekends, or 2-10 weeks this summer
Apply with letter of interest to work 5 hrs, 6 days/week! Be in White Mountains with great food, great people, lots to do. Garden, housekeeping, carpentry, kitchen... Many possibilities.

Requires pre-registration and fee.

Gather for a summer view of Mt. Chocorua with friends, family, workmates.
Make memories as we shape a better future at the World Fellowship Center!