

Where Social Justice Meets Nature

See inside pages for our full education and entertainment program listings

For all rates and lodging options go to our website www.worldfellowship.org email office@worldfellowship.org call (603) 447-2280

Your per person reservation includes:

- ▶ Three freshly prepared delicious meals
- ▶ Children's and youth programs, Art and Body Movement
- ▶ The amazing roster of educational programs and entertainment listed on the inside pages
- ▶ Use of our facilities, including rowboats, canoes and kayaks on the incomparable Whitton Pond
- ▶ Meeting space for your retreat group
- ▶ A community that welcomes you and becomes part of your life forever

Enjoy the best of summer as you renew body, mind, and heart in the beautiful White Mountains of New Hampshire. Create, explore, meet people, and learn about the different ways you are all working to change the world. Let us do the cooking- enjoy three nourishing meals every day! Enjoy your time when your kids participate in our daily children's program. Be on your own or join others for programs, hike and bike outings, body movement and Art on the Porch -- all offered to promote peace and social justice, community-building, creative expression, rejuvenation and passion for nature. Founded in 1941 as a non-profit educational retreat center, this "camp with a social conscience" has a legacy of working to ensure love, justice, and equity for all as we prepare the way for future generations.

WE OFFER

Daily Children's Program

Every morning 10am - 12noon, ages 3 - 9; Sunday through Thursday during evening program, 7:30pm - 9:00pm, for ages 5-12. Sarah Daly, the dedicated Children's Fellowship staffer for the 2023 season, will be there to engage your child with fun and purpose, indoors and out. Sarah is also looking forward to facilitating unscheduled teen engagement and activities at other times, just the way they like them.

Art on the Porch

Creativity and fun with an artist and colors most afternoons; check website for details.

Body Movement

Yoga, gentle stretching, and breathing sessions happen most mornings and some afternoons; check website for details.

Outdoor Recreation

Experienced volunteers lead occasional guided hiking and biking trips in the surrounding area, all levels, with bikes and helmets available for use by WF guests. Look for Howie Fain, Acting Executive Director, to help out with some of these guided trips during the summer as well.

Want to explore this spectacular area on your own? We have custom descriptions and maps, and are always available to advise you on destinations. We also have hiking trails on our wooded property.

Gift Certificates now available! – Email: giftcertificate@worldfellowship.org

Peace & Justice Camp & Conference Center

Recurring events, every week, all season

Sunday Evenings*

WF Jeopardy! Classic game with a peace and justice twist. Teams and prizes. *Except 9/3

Tuesday Afternoons

WF Book of the Summer discussions. Selection: Our Missing Hearts, by Celeste Ng

Wednesday evenings

S'more community campfires Gather 'round, there's always s'more conversation to be had

Friday Evenings

Fun Night!
Community talent show
Always fun, always Friday

Programs, July 2023

Sat Jul 1 10:00AM Healing Justice: Making the Case for Abolition Grace Kindeke and Ophelia Burnett are the Program Director and Healing Justice Coordinator for American Friends Service Committee-NH

Sun Jul 2 10:00AM Tell Your Story, Change the World Fanshen Cox, President of TruLo Productions, is a producer, writer, educator and performer

Mon Jul 3 7:30PM Cuba: What's Old, What's New? Diane Stradling traveled to Cuba for the 11th time this past February

Tue Jul 4 10:00AM Immigration 101 and How Race Matters Tanya Greene is Director of U.S. Program for Human Rights Watch

Tue Jul 4 7:30PM Fireworks from below (nearby Tamworth) or above (night hike up Black Cap, overlooking North Conway display, with Howie Fain)

Thu Jul 6 7:30PM Public and Private in Energy, Climate & Weather Daniel Kirk-Davidoff is a climate and energy systems scientist

Sat Jul 8 Daytime Up and Over: Major Taylor Road Rides in the Mountains of NH Lynne Tolman is President of the Major Taylor Association

Sat Jul 8 10:00AM Historical Background of Ukraine and the Current War Emily Channell-Justice is Director of the Temerty Contemporary Ukraine Program at Harvard's Ukrainian Research Institute

Sun Jul 9 10:00AM Tao of K-Dramas Dr. Mindy Fullilove is a psychiatrist and professor of urban policy and health at the New School in New York City

Jul 9-13 Mt Chocorua Writing Week Mariahadesa Ekere Taille and Ellen Meeropol present a writing program for all; morning sessions after Sunday evening intro

Tue Jul 11 7:30PM Understanding History through Fiction Ellen Meeropol is a novelist and co-facilitator of Mt. Chocorua Writing Week

Tue Jul 12 2:00PM Main St Walk (in Tamworth) Molly Rose Kaufman and Douglas Farrand of Univ of Orange (NJ), a free school of Restoration Urbanism; with Andy Davis and Hannah Lally

Thu Jul 13 7:30PM Open Mic: Readings by Writing Week Participants All invited

Sat Jul 15 10:00AM Exploring the World and Biodiversity Our BioBlitz team of naturalists discuss what they learn from their world-wide adventures

Jul 15 2PM - Jul 16 2:00PM 24 Hours, BioBlitz Small teams work on WF lands under the direction of our team of naturalists; see website for more info and registration

Sun Jul 16 10:00AM Learning about World Fellowship's Land Representatives from the Upper Saco Valley Land Trust, partners in WF's conservation easement, report on what they learned about living things on our land

Jul 17-21 Nature Photography Gina Bilander's morning workshop sessions include field trips

Mon Jul 17 7:30PM Environment Empowerment: Taking Action Lynne Cherry is a climate activist, author and illustrator of over thirty nature-themed children's books

Tue Jul 18 7:30PM Environmental Justice Green Roots is a community-based organization in Chelsea MA

Thu Jul 20 7:30PM Margaret Bourke-White presented by Gina Bilander

Jul 20-23 Ukeleles! Dan & Molly Watt are back to lead joyous days of strumming and singing, open to all

Sat Jul 22 9:00AM Forest Bathing Tam Willey (they/them), founder of Toadstool Walks, a guiding practice based in Boston, MA, is a certified forest therapy guide

Sun Jul 23 10:00AM A Quest to Thrive: Economics of Enslavement and Portsmouth's Early Black Community Angela Matthews is a tour guide on Portsmouth's Black Heritage Trail

Mon Jul 24 7:30PM LGBT Asylum Task Force Asylees fleeing persecution abroad made their way to this Worcester, MA ministry, and now recount their stories

Tue Jul 25 2:00PM Soccer! Stu Ball works his all-age, all-level magic on the field again

Tue Jul 25 7:30PM Love can conquer suffering: Peace advocates working for a better, more just world through grassroots activism Kevin Martin is president of national Peace Action

Thu Jul 27 2:00PM Soccer! Stu Ball

Thu Jul 27 7:30PM Optimism, Fantasy, and Denial: The Common Ground of the Right and the Left Arnold Farr is a professor of Philosophy at the University of Kentucky

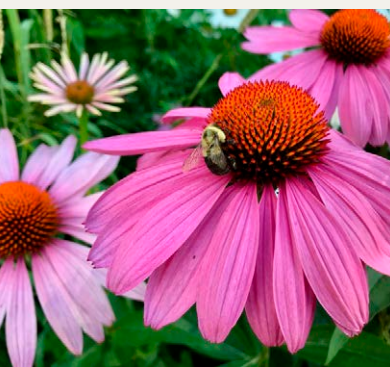

Jul 28-30 Seasoned Clams Anti-Nuke Reunion

Sat Jul 29 10:00AM Multicultural History of Women & Music & All of Us Finding Our Own Voice Judy Gorman is a singer, songwriter and guitarist

Sun Jul 30 10:00AM Elections in an Uncertain World: Fearing them more in '24? Part 1: What are the issues that motivate us to act – or not act? Chris Owens has managed consulted with political campaigns

Mon Jul 31 10:00AM Elections in an Uncertain World: Fearing them more in '24? Part 2: What are the actions we can take? Chris Owens

Mon Jul 31 7:30 PM What will it take to end mass incarceration? Marc Mauer is a senior advisor to the Sentencing Project

World Fellowship Summer Program 2023

Saturday Evening Performances. 7:30 PM, July 1 - Sept 2, 2023

Jul 1 Jean Rohe is a singer and prolific writer of “one of a kind narrative songs,” in a solo performance

Jul 8 Music City Concert Douglas, Margaux, Ray, Reinita, Janis, and friends from University of Orange perform a range spanning hip-hop to classical to free jazz

Jul 15 Bloco Montanha Verde brings their lively samba sounds from Burlington VT

Jul 22 George and Ruth: Songs and Letters of the Spanish Civil War presented by Dan & Molly Watt, and musical friends

Jul 29 Trio of Tomas Rodriguez (guitar), Julian Gerstin (Percussion) and Barry Kornhauser (cello) present original compositions and unique arrangements

Aug 5 Ty Citerman performs a special solo set of original music, improvisations, jazz tunes, classical and folk pieces

Aug 12 Sol y Canto! Rosie and Brian Amador bring their special blend of “Latin roots music to change the world” back to World Fellowship

Aug 19 David and Jacob Bernz are a father-son team of folksingers and songwriters from the Hudson Valley

Aug 26 Lucy Stone is Coming to Town Storyteller and actress Judith Black brings 19th century activist and orator Lucy Stone to life on stage

Sep 2 Pamela Means and Guthrie's Ghost headline a special Protest Fest evening, 6:00pm-10:00pm. Lots more over the weekend; see below and online program.

Programs, August & September 2023

Tue Aug 12:00PM Soccer! Stu Ball works his all-age, all-level magic on the field

Tue Aug 17:30PM The North Star Project at WFC: People of Color and the Natural World Winston C. Cox is a career public school educator and proud member of Kilombo Novo, Capoeira Angola

Thu Aug 3 2:00PM Soccer! Stu Ball

Thu Aug 3 7:30PM The Right's Attacks on Public Schools and the Movement for Education Equity Megan Hester is the National Campaign Director of the NYU Metro Center and a lead organizer for H.E.A.L. Together

Sat Aug 5 10:00AM “War is the Greatest Evil!” Liz Kelner is a retired social worker, lifelong activist for peace and justice, and group facilitator

Sun Aug 6 10:00AM Hiroshima Remembrance Ceremony Andrea Walsh, past Co-Director of World Fellowship Center, leads our community gathering and reflections on peace at Peace Rock

Mon Aug 7 7:30PM World Fellowship as a Dialogue Center, Christoph and Kit Schmauch were Co-Directors of WFC from 1970-2000

Tue Aug 8 7:30PM Why is the web doing that? Joel Couch likes knowing how things work, and sharing that with others in an accessible way

Thu Aug 10 7:30PM A discussion with Vermont Lt. Governor David Zuckerman (Progressive/Democratic) on the nexus of electoral politics and issue organizing

Sat Aug 12 10:00AM Nigeria's 2023 Elections -- Ground-Level Observations & Global Reflections Megan Chapman & Andrew Maki lived in Lagos until recently

Sun Aug 13 10:00AM Latin America's New Left Surge Linda Farthing is an independent Latin American scholar and journalist whose latest book is Coup: A Story of Violence and Resistance in Bolivia (2021)

Mon Aug 14 7:30PM Conversations across Generations Sara Keenan is an educator and coach

Tue Aug 15 7:30PM Anti-Semitism Today: How the Right Weaponizes It, and The Left Struggles to Address It Tammy Shapiro is the Senior U.S. Director of the Diaspora Alliance

Thu Aug 17 7:30PM Facing Climate Disruption: A Fictional Vision Chuck Collins, co-editor of Inequality.org at IPS, discusses his provocative new novel, Altar to an Erupting Sun

Sat Aug 19 10:00AM How War in Ukraine Can End: Taking Proxy War to the Negotiating Table Medea Benjamin cofounded CODEPINK and Global Exchange. Joined by Robert Shetterly, creator of Americans Who Tell The Truth portrait series

Sun Aug 20 10:00AM A Decade of Struggle Against Mass Forced Evictions of the Urban Poor in Nigeria and Benin Megan Chapman & Andrew Maki directed Justice & Empowerment Initiatives in Lagos, Nigeria

Mon Aug 21 7:30PM Organizing Non-Profit Worker Unions in the Age of Remote Work Leslie Fine is a union organizer with the Communications Workers of America Local 1180

Tue Aug 22 7:30PM State of The Union: Patterns, Challenges and Opportunities for US Labor Movement in 2020s Sarah Hughes is a staff organizer at Labor Notes

Thu Aug 24 7:30PM Race and Unions Sarah Hughes is a staff organizer at Labor Notes

Sat Aug 26 7:30PM On Women's Equality Day, Celebrating, Understanding and Protecting the Right to Vote Olivia Zink is the Director of Open Democracy NH, and Liz Tentarelli is the President of League of Women Voters NH

Sun Aug 27 10:00AM Speaking Truth to Power Judith Black, a storyteller and activist, will support participants in shaping compelling stories

Aug 28-Sep 1 Choral Singing Week Director Gina Samardge of the Beacon Rising Choir and accompanist Andy Reinhardt lead this singing workshop for all levels and all voices. Sliding scale fee 0-$100 - all are welcome

Mon Aug 28 7:30PM Dancing With My Shadow: How the Hula Hoop Saved My Life Sarah Daly, WF's Children's Fellowship Coordinator, on mental health challenges

Tue Aug 29 7:30PM Puttin' on Some Harmonies Rise Up Singing fun with Choral Week participants

Thu Aug 31 7:30PM Becky's Anonymous Alexia Layne-Lomon, Leigh Beck & Kim Wassel Hardy are founding members of this mutual aid organization for white women to help end white supremacy

Labor Day Weekend: As part of Protest Fest with music headliners Pamela Means and Guthrie's Ghost, lots more this weekend including Bev Grant's film We Were There; Andy Davis with Pay Attention to What They Tell You to Forget: Stories of New Hampshire's Labor History; music & song workshop with Guthrie's Ghost; Eric and Javi with Protest Playlist Brunch, and more. Not to be missed!! See website for times and details

World Fellowship Center
PO Box 2280
Conway, NH 03818

NON PROFIT ORG
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
BOSTON MA
PERMIT No 51544

Wake Up Where Social Justice Meets Nature! 2023 Summer Program

Intergenerational Camp and Conference Center

Take a break and get away this summer!

Promoting social justice and connections between people, communities, and nature through education, recreation, and creative expression.

Enjoy:

Fresh mountain air and water, wilderness lake

Promoting sustainability and environmental harmony sharing this 'second home'.

Savor slow food. Explore. Rest. Learn. Play!

Engaged, inclusive, welcoming, curious people of many cultures, nations, and persuasions.

New ways of being in your body through movement and in your heart with artistic endeavors

Stretch your imagination and your knowledge.

Be part of this unique community striving to build mutual understanding between people of every background and belief, and to respect the value and worth of all individuals and peoples.

We envision a world where people are deeply rooted in our shared humanity and the pursuit of justice.

World Fellowship Center
Albany, NH

Street address (for GPS):
368 Drake Hill Rd., Albany, NH 03818

Follow us on

World.Fellowship.Center
 @worldfellowshipcenter

Tel: 603-447-2280 • <https://worldfellowship.org/ways-to-donate>

World Fellowship is a 501(c)3 organization. Contributions are tax deductible.