

A summer retreat to renew your spirit

Where Social Justice Meets Nature!

And you don't have to cook or clean! Experience a unique alpine environment with a vacation to renew body, mind and spirit.

Individuals, families and groups can be inspired to create and explore ways of promoting peace and social justice through education and dialogue.

Founded in 1941 as a non-profit educational retreat center, this "camp with a social conscience" has a legacy of promoting peace, defending civil liberties, and ensuring that justice and equity are part of the discussion as society shapes itself for future generations.

2016 will be WF's 75th Anniversary!

A Peace & Justice Camp & Conference Center for All Ages

promoting peace and social justice through education and dialogue inspired by nature.

Renew mind, body and spirit

- Fresh mountain air and water, wilderness lake
- Arts, recreation, and educational programming
- Intergenerational multicultural community
- Inclusive, welcoming, open hearts. Deep woods.

Explore with constructive, engaged people - from the issues of today to nature walks or print-making. Stretch your body, mind and creativity.

Promote environmental harmony and sustainability sharing this 'second home'. Enjoy nature
- woods, pond, lawn, gardens. Savor slow food.

Be part of this unique community striving to build mutual understanding between people of every background and belief, and to respect the value and worth of all individuals.

We envision a world in which the earth's abundance is used to sustain a peaceable, friendly existence for all!
