

Make this summer one to remember!

Where Social Justice Meets Nature

Enjoy the best of summer as you renew body, mind, and heart in an alpine environment.

Create, explore, meet people, learn about changing the world. Let us do the cooking!

Be on your own or with others for programs, hike and bike outings, body movement and Art on the Porch, - all offered to promote justice, community-building, creative expression, and a passion for nature.

Founded in 1941 as a non-profit educational retreat center, this "camp with a social conscience" has a legacy of working to ensure that love, justice, and equity for all are prioritized as we prepare the way for future generations.

ORNG Ink artists lead Art on the Porch.

Thursday, August 22, 7:30pm
400 Years of Inequality: A People's Observance for a Just Future
The arrival of the first Africans to be sold into bondage in North America was in 1619 at Jamestown. Families, organizations, and cities are observing by telling their stories of oppression and resistance. Join a night of stories and music as we explore ways WFC has been and will be a part of the struggle for justice.

Friday, August 23, 10am
Collaborative Poetry Workshop
Jillian Buckley, a writer, teacher, and MSW candidate offers an opportunity for creativity.

7:30pm - Fun Night!
Saturday, August 24, 10am
Suitcase Stories Unpacked
Stories about immigration and culture influence how people perceive newcomers and the world. Explore how to develop immigration-related stories that bridge understanding across borders. Cheryl Hamilton of the International Institute of New England, and Massmouth.

7:30pm Tangled Lives: Native People and English Settlers in Colonial New England
Ji Radner juxtaposes Native American oral traditions and stories told by her own New England ancestors to reveal a complex colonial "middle ground" in which settlers and Native people saw one another as defenders and trespassers, pursuers and refugees, relatives and aliens, kind neighbors and ruthless destroyers.

Sunday, August 25, 10am
Singing with ORNG Ink Friends
Experience our restorative practice of singing and intoning together. Bring a song you can teach or willingness to make noise and to listen. Mindy Fullilove, Margaux Simmons, Aubrey Murdock, Doug Farrand, Jared Read.

La Lucha y Transformación!

Sunday, August 25, 7:30pm
Horizontal Development
Urban development can benefit the people of the community within which it is located. Bottom up, diverse, place-specific, and resident-focused, it challenges the status quo of vertical development, which is top down, place-generic, and corporation-focused. Molly Rose Kaufman (WFC board), Aubrey Murdock, and friends.

Choral Singing with Bev Grant!

Sunday - Friday, Aug 25 - 30*
Singing songs together moves us toward a better world - and is fun! All levels, genders, ages, styles welcome! Bev Grant, feminist, activist, singer, songwriter, Brooklyn Women's Chorus director, grandmother! *$100 fee.

Monday, August 26, 7:30pm

Intergenerational Camp & Conference Center

Promoting social justice and connections between people, communities, and nature through education, recreation, and creative expression.

Take a break and enjoy the best of summer!

- Fresh mountain air and water, wilderness lake.
 - Engaged, inclusive, welcoming, curious people of many cultures, nations, and persuasions.
 - New ways of being in your body through movement and in your heart with artistic endeavors.
 - Promote sustainability and environmental harmony in this shared 'second home'.
- Stretch your imagination and your knowledge.
Savor slow food. Explore. Rest. Learn. Play!

Be part of a unique community striving to build mutual understanding between people of every background and belief, and to respect the value and worth of all individuals and peoples.

We envision a world where people are deeply rooted in our shared humanity and the pursuit of justice.
